

CONDUIT

The Newsletter for License Coordinators of TeachingBooks.net

September 2007 Vol. 3, No. 9

*This monthly newsletter provides the inside scoop on how you can maximize the use of TeachingBooks.
Please forward pertinent information to your colleagues.*

This Conduit newsletter should be forwarded to all your teachers, librarians, reading coaches, ELA coordinators -- anyone who uses and enjoys K-12 books.

Webinars Now Available!

Quickly and conveniently learn how to use TeachingBooks.net: Free TeachingBooks.net webinars are now scheduled and available!

With this Conduit, we're thrilled to be rolling out webinars—short, online, live training sessions offered many times each week to help everyone in your community learn how to use and integrate TeachingBooks' author and book resources into their work.

All of your teachers and staff can now learn directly from the TeachingBooks staff about TeachingBooks and how to use it to support their work.

These free webinars only require a computer with Internet access and speakers (or headphones). You do not need a telephone, nor is special software required. You can attend from school or from home, and each staff person can be at their own computer in their own room or school—there is no need to bring them all together into one place.

The schedule and registration details may be found at:
<http://teachingbooks.net/webinars>

The posted schedule runs through the end of October, but we will be adding sessions beyond then. We will also add more sessions in September and October if there is demand.

Questions:

John H. Moore

(800) 596-0710

john@TeachingBooks.net

© 2007 TeachingBooks.net LLC. All rights reserved.