We asked our team what you should know about TeachingBooks...

"Everything you need to teach a book and inspire readers is all right there. You just have to choose what you want."

"Reduce the opportunity gap in your community, because every reader can enrich connections to the books they are reading."

"I think it's proven that once teachers know about TeachingBooks, they will use it."

"Create interactive 'hooks' to spark interest with some of the most reluctant readers."

"Your shelves, your displays, and your book rooms can be interactive — your library can 'talk'!"

"Hands-free ways to help students select the next books they read — without touching the books."

"This product is so price effective, it's almost ridiculous! You should have this service!"
