

Selected Awards & Reviews

TeachingBooks.net

School Library Journal

"TeachingBooks is a must-have program and gets an 'A' for providing a quick, easy, and user-friendly interface that helps students and teachers locate great resources."

"All of the programs, guides and readings have been designed to enable educators and students to learn how authors think about their books."

"One of the best education sites on the Web."
"TeachingBooks.net makes reading come alive."

Library Media Connection

"This Web site is wonderful...extensive and all-inclusive. [TeachingBooks] is extremely useful for teachers and library media specialists... Highly Recommended."

Teaching K-8

"Celebrate Reading – Electronically! TeachingBooks.net...a rich resource for book characters, author studies and book talks."

PlanetEsmé Bookroom

"Prepare to Have Your Bookloving Mind Blown. Through the mind-boggling TeachingBooks.net, you can have access to hundreds of videos of creative artists at work. Take some time to really explore it... it's an educator's dream come true."

Teacher's Choice Award 2007 Classroom Web Sites

"The very best in classroom-tested, teacher-recommended products."

2006 EdNet Rookie of the Year First Runner-Up

"Honoring the most promising start-up venture that has the greatest potential to be a significant player in the education industry in the coming years."

Association of Educational Publishers Distinguished Achievement Award 2006

"Best Educational Website, Portal for Young Adult and Children."

Technology & Learning Award of Excellence 2004, Language Arts

"This 'awesome' portal makes literature 'come alive' for students and teachers."

Instructor Magazine Best of 2004

"A treasure trove of materials" among "the latest and greatest educational products for teachers and kids."