

MAZE

Beginning when she was a teenager, Tiny Broadwick toured the country as a daring parachutist! She performed heart-stopping jumps for crowds far below. Oftentimes, the wind would blow her parachute off target, and she'd land in dangerous places—on roofs, in trees, even on a train! Help Tiny find her way to a nice, safe landing.

If you land exactly on a space with directions, follow the prompt. You must land exactly on the “Winner!” space to end the game.

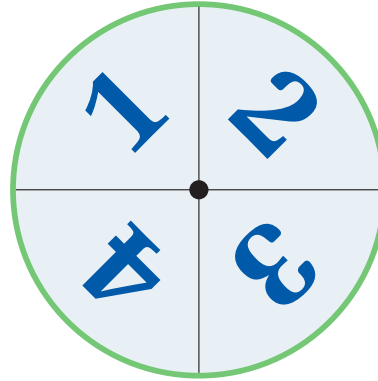

Cut out your playing pieces.

Use the spinner to know how many spaces to move on the game board. Put a paperclip at the center of the circle and use the point of a pencil to hold it in place. With your other hand, flick the paperclip. Move ahead the number of spaces indicated.
