

Is Your School, Library, or Community Holding a Turkey Trot or Virtual Fun Run?

Make it a Judy and Stink Moody-themed event and get kids moving and reading!

Kids love the Judy Moody and Stink series written by Megan McDonald! Get them moving toward the finish line a little faster with the chance to win Judy and Stink prizes, provided by Candlewick Press. All you need to do is visit <https://www.candlewick.com/turkeytrot> to register and download a reproducible race bib.

Registrants will receive ten paperback books and one Judy Moody "I Ate a Shark" T-shirt to use as raffle or race prizes, plus temporary tattoos, Moody pencils, and reproducible activity sheets, while supplies last.

Here are some ideas to make your Turkey Trot even more fun:

- Make copies of the race bibs on the back of this flyer and ask participants to write what they are thankful for on them.
- Encourage attendees to dress as their favorite character from a Judy Moody or Stink book.
- Do a pre-race reading of Judy Moody and Stink: The Wishbone Wish. (Note: Readings cannot be recorded or shared online without prior written approval.)
- Rather than a monetary entry fee, ask for items for donation to a local food pantry, or see if you can partner with a local Little Free Library Sharing Box.

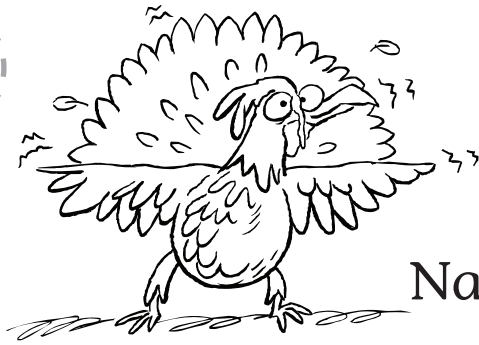

Ask families to share photos on social media using the hashtags #MoodyTurkeyTrot and #CandlewickPress.
